

Humboldt awards Stress Reliever Award to Clarke School director

Humboldt Storage and Moving, greater Boston's oldest moving company and largest United Van Lines agent, recently announced the company's first-ever Citizen Stress Reliever Award winner. The inaugural winner was Cara Jordan, director at the Clarke School for the Deaf in Canton. Humboldt President James Sullivan recently presented the award, including a certificate for a day at a local spa for two, to Ms. Jordan at the school with all her students looking on. Pictured: (L-R) Humboldt's Scott O'Callaghan, creator of the Citizen Stress Reliever Award, with Cara Jordan and Humboldt President James Sullivan.

